Date: 13.03.2026

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَٰنِ الرَّحِيمِ

وَمَا يَنْطِقُ عَنِ الْهَوٰى ۝ اِنْ هُوَ اِلَّا وَحْيٌ يُوحٰى ۝

وَقَالَ رَسُولُ اللهِ صَلَّى اللهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ:

أَنَا مُحَمَّدٌ وَأَحْمَدُ وَالْمُقَفِّى وَالْحَاشِرُ وَنَبِيُّ التَّوْبَةِ وَنَبِيُّ الرَّحْمَةِ.

THE PROPHETS: REPRESENTATIVES OF TRUTH AND ULTIMATE REALITY

Honorable Muslims!

One of the fundamental elements of faith in our sublime religion is belief in the prophets. The prophets are the messengers chosen by Allah the Almighty from among humanity, the representatives of truth and ultimate reality. They were sent to show humankind the path to eternal salvation. The prophets called people to believe in Allah, that is, to tawhid.

Dear Believers!

The duty of prophethood, which began with the Prophet Adam (as), came to an end with the Prophet Muhammad Mustafa (saw). Likewise, the divine message that began with the Prophet Adam (as) was crowned and completed with the Holy Qur'an, which was revealed to our Prophet (saw) on the Laylat al-Qadr (Night of Glory) during the month of Ramadan.

Our beloved Prophet (saw) transformed a society that was engulfed in the whirlpool of oppression. He turned a world that was said to be unlivable into the Age of Bliss and transformed the darkness of ignorance into light. In a hadith, our Prophet (saw) said, "I am Muhammad; I am Ahmad. I am al-Muqaffi, who comes after the prophets. I am al-Hashir at whose feet people will be gathered. I am the Prophet of Repentance. I am the Prophet of Mercy."[1] Therefore, whoever aims to embody moral virtues such as love and respect must not depart from the guidance of the Messenger of Allah (saw). If one desires goodness to prevail in the world and evil to come to an end, one must hold firmly to the Qur'an and the Sunnah.

Esteemed Muslims!

Allah the Almighty states in the Noble Qur'an: "Nor does he speak of his own whims. It is only a revelation sent down ˹to him˺."[2] For this reason, to regard our Prophet and his messages filled with mercy as a "delusion" is a direct attack upon the word of Allah, the will of Allah, and the religion of Allah. Allah the Almighty informs us of the exemplary fate of those who do not believe in the prophets and who make them a subject of mockery and amusement as follows: "˹Other˺ messengers had already been ridiculed before you ˹O Prophet˺, but those who mocked them were overtaken by what they used to ridicule."[3]

Honorable Believers!

We never make a distinction among the prophets. We believe that all of them are the messengers of Allah the Almighty. For we know that each of the prophets is honored in the sight of Allah. The Prophet Adam, the Prophet Ibrahim, the Prophet Musa, the Prophet Isa, and the Prophet Muhammad Mustafa (saw) all proclaimed the same message. Their message is fundamentally one and the same: tawhid. Allah the Almighty states, "We surely sent a messenger to every community, saying, 'Worship Allah and shun false gods.'"[4]

Noble Muslims!

Islam, just as it calls for tawhid in belief, also commands unity in social life—meaning that the Ummah should act in unity and solidarity. Allah the Almighty points to this reality in the Noble Qur'an: "Obey Allah and His Messenger and do not dispute with one another, or you would be discouraged and weakened. Persevere! Surely Allah is with those who persevere."[5] Yet despite this, for years schemes have been carried out over the lands of Islam, and Muslims have been groaning under oppression.

Dear Brothers and Sisters!

In these days as the Laylat al-Qadr draws near, we should reassess our lives in the light of revelation and in accordance with the principles of our beloved Prophet (saw). We must be united and together, strengthening our brotherhood. In these final days of the month of Ramadan, we should pray for one another and for the Ummah of Muhammad, so that the help and favor of our Lord may be upon the believers.

Honorable Believers!

Next Wednesday, we will commemorate the anniversary of the Çanakkale Victory. On this occasion, we pray Allah the Almighty to bestow His mercy upon our noble martyrs and our heroic veterans who have passed on to the eternal realm. We extend our congratulations in advance for the Laylat al-Qadr. We conclude this week's khutbah with the meaning of Surah al-Qadr: "Indeed, ˹it is˺ We ˹Who˺ sent this ˹Qur'an˺ down on the Night of Glory. And what will make you realize what the Night of Glory is? The Night of Glory is better than a thousand months. That night the angels and the ˹holy˺ spirit descend, by the permission of their Lord, for every ˹decreed˺ matter. It is all peace until the break of dawn."[6]

---

[1] Muslim, Fadha'il, 126.
[2] Najm, 53/3,4
[3] An'am, 6/10.
[4] Nahl 16/36.
[5] Anfal, 8/46.
[6] Qadr, 97/1-5.

General Directorate of Religious Services