

لِتَعْلَمُوا أَنَّ اللَّهَ مَعَ الصَّابِرِينَ

وَأَطِيعُوا اللَّهَ وَرَسُولَهُ وَلَا تَنَازَعُوا فَتَفَشَّلُوا وَتَذَهَّبَ رِيحُكُمْ
وَاضْبِرُوا إِنَّ اللَّهَ مَعَ الصَّابِرِينَ.
وَقَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ:
لَا تَقَاطِعُوا وَلَا تَدَابِرُوا وَلَا تَبَاغِضُوا وَلَا تَحَاسِدُوا وَكُونُوا عِبَادًا
اللَّهُ أَخْوَانًا.

THERE IS BLESSING IN UNITY, AND MERCY IN BROTHERHOOD

Honorable Muslims!

In the verse I have recited, our Almighty Lord (swt) states, “Obey Allah and His Messenger and do not dispute with one another, or you would be discouraged and weakened. Persevere! Surely Allah is with those who persevere.”¹

In the hadith I have recited, our Prophet (saw) says: “Do not cut off relations with one another, do not turn your backs on one another, do not bear grudges against one another, and do not envy one another. O servants of Allah! Be brothers.”²

Dear Believers!

One of the values taught to us by our Prophet (saw), who was sent as a mercy to the worlds, is brotherhood. This brotherhood is the brotherhood of faith, which unites people of different languages and colors around the same belief and ideals. At the heart of this brotherhood lies the awareness of being servants of the Almighty Allah and the Ummah of Prophet Muhammad Mustafa (saw). In this brotherhood lies the endeavor to be united, to act as one, and to stand strong; there is no pursuit of self-interest or competition for superiority. In this brotherhood, there is unity and collective harmony—never division or discord. In this brotherhood dwell such noble virtues as love, compassion, sharing, and mutual support; there is no place for hatred, enmity, violence, or hostility.

Esteemed Muslims!

This understanding of brotherhood, rooted in faith, has kept us united as a nation for centuries. Our noble ancestors, who wholeheartedly believed in the verse, “... You will have the upper hand, if you are ‘true’ believers.”³, triumphed through this bond of brotherhood in Malazgirt, in the conquest of Istanbul, and in Çanakkale. These lands, watered with the blood of martyrs, have become our homeland until the Day of Judgment through the spirit of brotherhood during the War of Independence.

Dear Believers!

Allah the Almighty (swt) states in the Holy Qur'an as follows: “O believers! If you stand up for Allah, He will help you and make your steps firm.”⁴ Inspired by this verse, our nation has carried the banner of Islam for centuries and has served humanity. Our nation has always stood by the oppressed and has strived to uphold the truth, to spread justice and goodness throughout the world. So long as we continue this noble effort, Allah the Almighty (swt) will never leave us helpless or forsaken. Our forefathers, who held firmly to the verse, إِنَّمَا الْمُؤْمِنُونَ إِخْرَجُوا “The believers are but one brotherhood.”⁵, overcame every hardship together, shoulder to shoulder. They sacrificed their lives without hesitation, never relinquished even an inch of their land, and never allowed a heathen to ever lay hand on the bosom of our temples. So long as we uphold this spirit of unity and solidarity, the adhan will never cease in the skies of our blessed homeland, and our glorious flag will never fall.

Dear Muslims!

Let us avoid every word and deed that may harm the spirit of brotherhood we learned from our Prophet (saw) and inherited from our ancestors. As a nation united by the same faith, history, and ideals, let us regard our differences as a source of richness. Let us strive to raise generations firmly devoted to their heritage and values, equipped with both morality and knowledge for the sake of our independence and future. Let us safeguard the national and spiritual values that define who we are.

On this occasion, we commemorate with mercy and gratitude our honored martyrs who entrusted these lands to us with their lives, and our heroic veterans who have passed on to the Hereafter. We pray to our Almighty Lord for health and peace for our veterans who are still with us. May the Almighty Allah perpetuate our unity and solidarity and preserve our state and nation.
